

The Business of Business

-Let's be professional about this. Take your clothes off.

-There must be SOMETHING...I always paid on time before. Lost my job and can't get another.

-We don't listen to all the sad songs. We'd never get anything done.

-But, I can keep my underwear?

-Receipts show you charged underwear too.

-So humiliating!

-We're professionals. We don't notice. Now with women, we'd hafta have policewoman along. We don't need to with you cuz you're a man...though not much of one.
